Message from the Commodore-

Lee Pelfrey

March lived up to its billing and came in like a lion, giving us a rollicking Wheelbarrow Race. First Place was captured by Jo Hood on his new (to him) J-30 followed by yours truly on Lagniappe, who had the good fortune to have the previous owner on board who knew which valve to close when water started coming in. Third Place went to Ken Wall on M&M who I understand had some of Perdido Bay in the wrong place as well. Anyway it was a fun day followed by a well-organized cookout in the shadow of the West Wing and music at the Cove. Thanks to Pan and Neal Rowell for putting on the race and cookout.

The weather cooperated as well for the Ingram Bayou Raft Up. Five boats were in attendance. The dolphin put on a show in the early afternoon and the various mosquito repellants on each boat kept the bugs at bay. The grills produced good food and the company produced great fellowship. It was an excellent kick off to the boating season.

April brings us daylight savings time and more sailing time. Don't forget the Cheeseburger Race and Raft Up on the 9th and the annual Wood Boat Festival at Pirate's Cove on the 30th. Check your email and the website for updates and event reminders.

Everyone should have received the 2005 Roster and ID Card by now. Please note: The number in the lower right hand corner must be used for any charges at a club where we have reciprocal privileges. Your cooperation is appreciated.

It is with much regret I must announce the demolition of our Ivan damaged clubhouse. Cost and safety issues necessitated this move. This nostalgic symbol of the Point Yacht Club will be missed. A workday is scheduled for Saturday, April 2 at 9:00 AM to start the renovation process for the West Wing. Bring hammers, crowbars, nail pullers and any other tools you think may help. Negotiations are ongoing regarding options for a future home for the club.
